(a) whether Government have evolved any policy to permit nationalised banks to arrive at out-of-court settlements with clients;

(b) if so, the guidelines issued in this regard;

(c) whether any effort is being made to arrive at reasonable compromises between nationalised banks and debtors;

(d) whether Government are monitoring the efforts being made by nationalised banks to reduce litigation; and

(e) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE AND THE MINISTER OF COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) to (c) Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has issued broad guidelines to be followed by Banks in cases of compromise or negotiated settlements of NPAs. However, the decision on the quantum of compromise/write offs and method of recovery is left to the Board of Directors of individual Banks. The Top Management of the Banks should ensure that there is no significant deviation from the general principles of compromise write offs and the write off decisions should judicious and in the best interest of the Bank. As per RBI advice, each bank is now required to have a loan recovery policy which sets down the manner of recovery of dues, targeted level of reduction (period wise) norms for permitted sacrifice/waiver, factors to be taken Into
